

The Course of the River

Famous Buildings on the Rhine

1. The Alpine Rhine

- Reichenau Castle (Switzerland):
Located directly at the confluence
From the front and back of the Rhine,
The beginning of the Alpine Rhine
- Vaduz Castle (Liechtenstein):
Castle above the Rhine Valley, in the
The princely family lives. From outside
Visible, but not publicly
Stable

2. The High Rhine

- Wooden bridge Bad Säckingen:
The longest covered wooden Bridge of Europe connects Bad
Säckingen (Germany) with Stein (Switzerland)
- Romans on the High Rhine:
Remains of Roman Watchtowers

3. The Upper Rhine

- Karlsruhe Castle:
The centre of the baroque Plan city of Karlsruhe. Construction:
from 1715. Today the seat of the Baden
National Museum
- Heidelberg Castle:
Belongs to the most famous
Castle ruins of Europe. Zer-
Disorder in the Palatinate
Follow-up war (17. Jh.). Today one
Of the most visited monuments
Germany

4. The Middle Rhine

- Marksburg (Braubach):
The only undestroyed high castle,
Shows mediaeval life
- Stolzenfels Castle (Koblenz):
In the 19th Century newly built, known for beautiful architecture and gardens

5. The Lower Rhine

- Xanten Cathedral (St. Viktor):
Example of Gothic architecture,
Which is often used as the "largest cathedral between Cologne and the sea" is called
- Kaiserpfalz Kaiserswerth
(Düsseldorf):
The imposing ruin of a Staufischen Pfalz directly on the Rhine shores

6. The Delta Rhine

- Maeslant lock-in:
Part of the Delta Works, one of the World's largest moveable Storm surge Defences, which the Rotterdam harbour from floods
Protects
- Grote Kerk (Dordrecht):
An imposing mediaeval
Church in the oldest city of Hol-Lands, which directly to the Flow of three delta arms (Oude Maas, Beneden Merwede
And Noord) borders

